...to community groups - printing session...

...are all themes that can be explored through the medium of printmaking by diverse age groups...

...& from community groups printing...

...the wide range of cultural groups' ideas & suggestions about play form the basis of the printing session themes...

printed onto
prepared templates...

...prints on stiff paper folded into 'qubes' form the first take-home element for participating community groups...

...to the groups' bookbinding sessions...

...the games & pastimes themes will be further explored with words & images via the medium of bookbinding...

...a printed,
published &
bound series of cube-shaped booklets...

...with a board game
fold-out feature -
would make up the
next 'take away'
element...

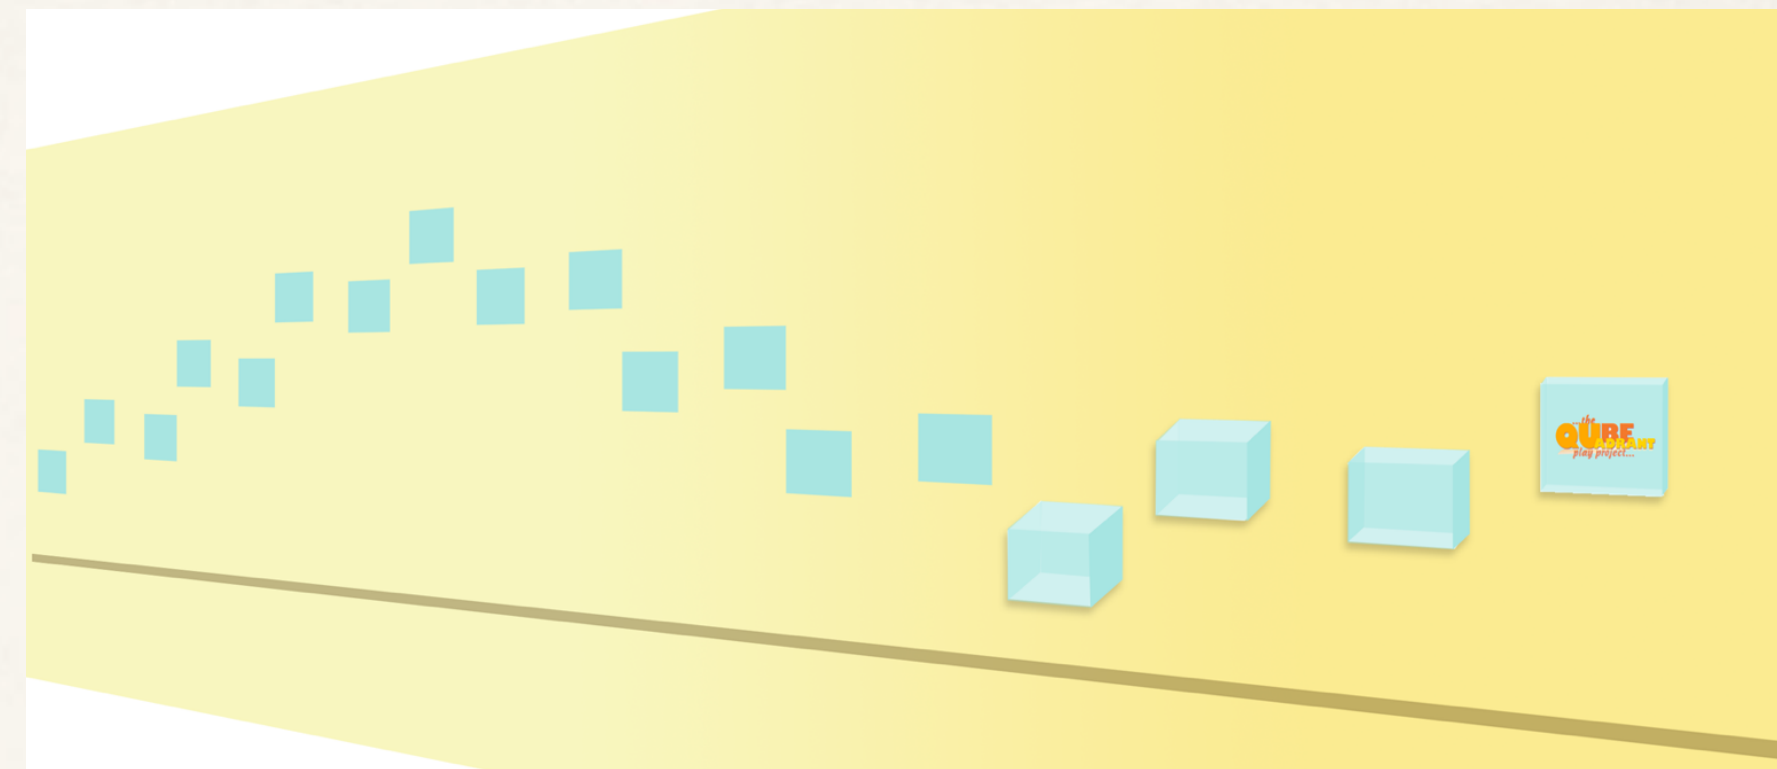

4

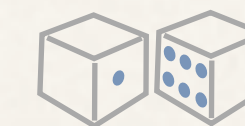

...all the community groups' work then re-presented & exhibited as glass cubes...

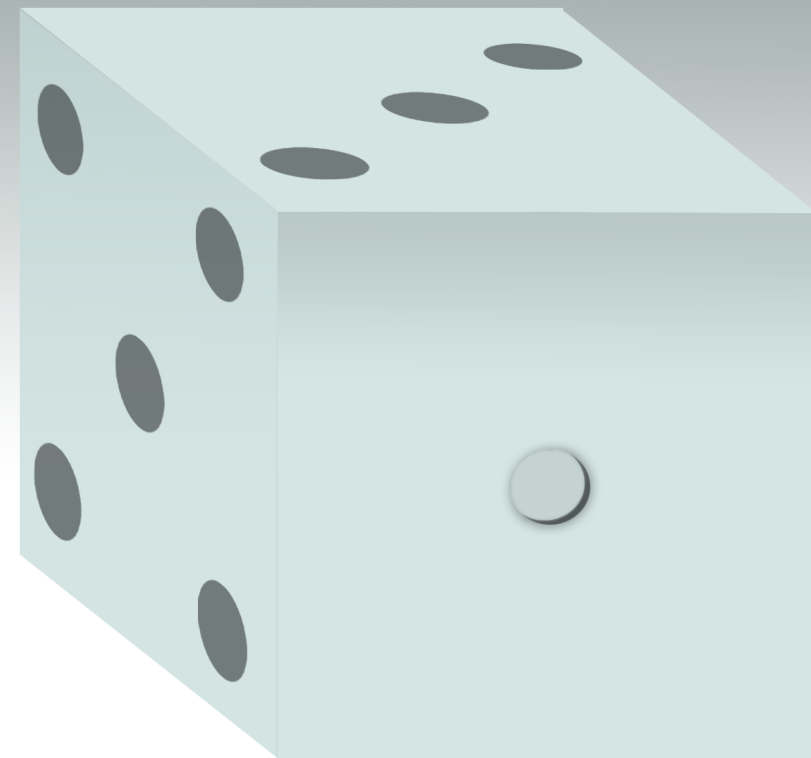

...utilising the printing & bookbinding sessions' visual ideas - the specially fabricated series of printed & illuminated glass cubes would be mounted for permanent exhibition - up to 20 set at varying heights & depths flowing along* the MetroCentre's Yellow Quadrant 21m display wall...
...creating an enhanced synthesis between the original ideas & the glass lightboxes...

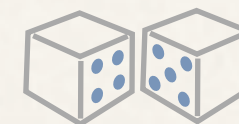

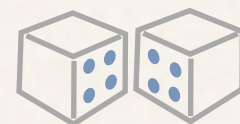

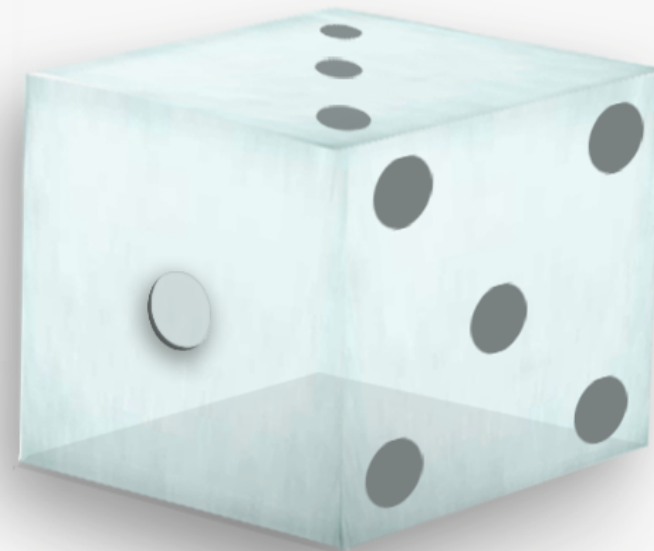

\* the lower cubes are  $\frac{2}{3}$  &  $\frac{1}{3}$ rd 'recessed'...

...and glass cubes as old-fashioned peep or 'raree' shows...

...as sand-blasted
glass cubes with a
viewing 'peep hole'
– revealing an
illuminated series of
glass 'magic lantern'
slides within...
